

Forest Rules

Eldorado National Forest

These regulations have been made by the Secretary of Agriculture to assure the enjoyment of recreation in the National Forests. They are common sense rules meant to control actions that cause damage to natural resources and facilities, as well as actions that cause unreasonable disturbances for National Forest visitors.

The Secretary of Agriculture's regulations (36 CFR 261) provide in part for regulating the occupancy and use of developed recreation sites. A violation of these regulations is subject to a penalty of not more than $5,000.00 or six months imprisonment, or both.

The following represents a partial listing of acts prohibited on recreation sites on the National Forests. All the regulations are published in Title 36 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The Code Of Federal Regulations is available online at <http://ecfr.gpoaccess.gov>.

Developed Recreation Sites:

- Failure to pay any recreation fee. (261.17)
- Occupying any portion of the site for other than recreation purposes. (261.16a)
- Building, attending, maintaining, or using a fire outside of a fire ring provided by the Forest Service for such purpose or outside of a stove, grill or fireplace. (261.16b)
- Cleaning or washing any personal property, fish, animal, or food, or bathing or washing at a hydrant or water faucet not provided for that purpose. (261.16c)
